June 2014

The church council has made the commitment to work diligently to keep in mind our mission statement - "Joyfully sharing God's love for all" – as we gather for council, work with committees, plan ministry, and join with one another for worship or live as the "scattered church" during the week. Furthermore, we look to our vision statements to help measure how it is we are doing in living out our mission.

As an example, last evening as we met for our council meeting, we discussed the vision statement for the area of worship – "to provide enhanced relevant worship experiences." (The list of vision statements can be found on the cover page of this newsletter.) What ensued was both a discussion of what that meant as well as a listing of how this happens. Some of the suggestions were hymn selection, instrumentation, children's sermons, summer beach mid-week worship, banners, hanging mosquitos, varied liturgies, and the like. You can add to the list, I'm sure, of what that means for you.

Our mission, as well as our vision, is what we strive for, knowing that we will not always get it right but trusting that God is leading us along the way, inviting us to risk for the sake of the Gospel and for the sake of the world.

As we end another programmatic year, I'd like to thank Marcus, Irma, and the choirs for their work in "joyfully sharing God's love for all" through their gift of music and commitment to God's work through Saron.

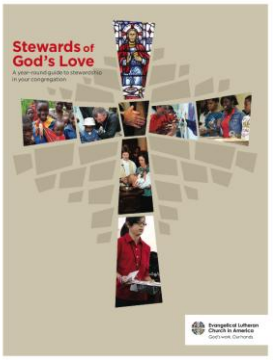
STEWARDS OF GOD'S LOVE

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest commandment. And a second is like it. You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Matthew 22:37b-39



IN: WHAT GOD HAS ENTRUSTED TO OUR CARE

June: Stewards of Stuff

"We live in a culture that values accumulating and consuming stuff. Many of us have an abundance of stuff – property, clothes, furniture, cars, etc. Similarly our congregation has physical assets – property, equipment, land, etc. How might we, as individual ELCA members and as a congregation, be good stewards of the stuff we have by using it to love God and our neighbor? How might we challenge ourselves to live more simply for the sake of our neighbor? .... What role does stuff have in our lives?" www.elca.org/growingstewards, page 26

Saron is a generous congregation. We give of our talents, time and resources. Being good "stewards of stuff" also includes caring for what we have. Golden Hammers is a good example of volunteers who help us care and conserve here at Saron. Dollars saved can then be used in other ways. As a community of faith we share responsibility for the best use of our collective resources. Having conversations about how much is enough and how to live life more simply is part of our challenge in caring for what God has entrusted to our care.

God's work, our hands

Synod Assembly

The 2014 North/West Synod Assembly met in the Adoba Hotel at Dearborn, MI from May 15-17. Attending from Saron Lutheran Church were Connor Ashley, Bob and Deanna Deaton and Pastor.

Justification-Justice-Joy was this year's theme and each subject was covered by a keynote speaker, one each day.

Dr. Kurt Hendel of the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago, quoted Luther in saying, "We are all priests, but some of us are called to be pastors" and if we see ourselves in this light, we cannot help but to aid those in need.

Judith Roberts of the ELCA, Program Director for Racial Justice, spoke on the need for Justice in our unfair population of prisons. She cited that 54% of the prison population is of color while 44% are White and this is compared to only at 13% of color in the population of the US. There needs to be a review of the Justice in the laws that force prison sentences.

Heidi Hagstrom served as the Director for the ELCA Youth Gathering and moved us with the music of Happy by Pharrah Williams. Martin Luther suggested we Leap with Joy in our Faith and when Paul wrote from prison to the Romans, he used the word Joy 15 times. The Good News is our source of Joy.

We met in plenary session to conduct the business of the Synod, to hear the reports of Committees, meet the Synod Committee Members and initiate voting for new or returning elected members of the Synod and any Synod Resolution Proposed.

The process of voting was greatly improved and expedited by the use of hand held electronic devices to cast the votes. This eliminated the hand count and gave an instant result for each ballot.

Two Resolutions were proposed:

Bestowing Emeritus Status to Bishop Schleicher and Bishop Hanson. This was approved by a vote of the Assembly.

A resolution to institute Antiracism training for Rostered Clergy and to determine how it would be funded was proposed and after much discussion and several revisions to the wording was approved by the Assembly.

Bishop Satterlee reviewed his first year of Service and listed 7 things he learned during his term:

1. God does powerful things in and thru us.
2. The Office of the Bishop is too big for one person.
3. Things take longer than planned to get done.
4. Support of both professional and volunteer leaders is essential to the mission of the Church.
5. We are a Church in Mission
6. We are a Church Together
7. This Synod is Truly a place of Promise

Submitted by Bob and Deanna Deaton, representatives of Saron Lutheran Church.

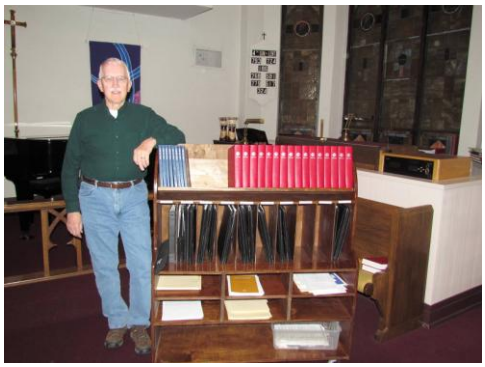
GOLDEN HAMMERS NEEDS HELP!

Golden Hammers is a group of volunteers at Saron that meets every Wednesday from 9:30 up to noon. They are women and men that gather to do various jobs in and outside of the church that help keep Saron looking good and also saving the church a considerable amount of money in cleaning and maintenance expenses. The work is not hard - mainly folding bulletins, preparing the monthly newsletter for mailing, preparing the sanctuary for Sunday morning, minor maintenance and cleaning/vacuuming of the church. If you would like to have more information on volunteering please talk to Dennis or Colleen Lundgren or Bill Oleson.



Thank you to Bob Deaton for designing and building the new cabinet for choir music. You can see it in person outside the sanctuary doors, on the way to the courtyard.
